Itinerary

Preliminaries

- You will receive a competition number, upon arrival
- You will be taught a short choreography. There is no solo talent presentation
- You will be evaluated based on your learning and memorisation skills, your rhythm and coordination, your expression and dynamism, your technique and we will take into consideration your general appearance.
- If pre-selected, we will invite you to stay for the finals in the afternoon. We would like to remind you that if, for any reasons, you are unable to attend the finals, your application will not be considered for the 2012 season.

Finals

- You will keep the same competition number.
- Starting at 1:00 p.m., candidates will introduce themselves to the judges in groups of five, and then perform the routine learned in the preliminaries. There will be an interview and free-style component as well. There is no solo talent presentation.
- After judges' deliberation, the 2012 Montreal Alouettes cheerleading team will be announced.
- End of auditions: 4:30 p.m.
